Notice to prospective juror

You have been selected at random as a prospective juror in the district of Brisbane for up to 4 week/s from 11/07/2022. Jurors play a significant part in our justice system. Serving on a jury is an important public role and you are encouraged to take part.

We need information back from you to determine whether you will be required for jury service.

- 1. What you need to do Complete and submit the questionnaire online at juror.courts.qld.gov.au or complete and return the enclosed form.

The questionnaire must be completed and submitted or returned no later than 27/05/2022, even if you are ineligible or asking for an excusal.

If you are employed, you will need to talk to your employer to make arrangements to be available.

- 2. If you are unsure about jury service

Jury service is a rewarding opportunity and a fundamental part of our democracy. However, you may not be eligible or you can apply to be excused from this role for medical, personal or financial reasons.

- 3. What happens next

If your name is chosen in the second selection, you will receive a summons notice requiring you to be available for 4 week/s from 11/07/2022. You will receive more detailed information about your role and about payments at this point. If you are not contacted by 08/07/2022 then you are not required.

If you apply to be excused and this is accepted, you will be notified by your email or mobile number as provided.

If you are eligible or your application to be excused is not granted, your name will be moved to the second selection stage of the process.

- 4. How can I find out more?

You can find out more about the jury service process by reading the Key questions or checking online at Queensland Courts www.courts.qld.gov.au

Please be aware that failing to return the questionnaire information by the due date or providing false or misleading information is an offence and you could be fined $1000 or imprisoned for two months.
